c) be independent of the person(s) about whom an allegation has been made.

Provided there are no restrictions or other reasonable bases for doing so, people against whom an allegation has been made will be informed of the allegation and will have an opportunity to respond to any allegation. That is, the School will take steps to ensure fair treatment of any person who is the subject of the Disclosable Matter as well as the Eligible Whistleblower.

Investigations will be conducted promptly and fairly with due regard for the nature of the allegation and the rights of the people involved in the investigation. The School recognises the importance of balancing the rights of the Eligible Whistleblower and the rights of people against whom a report is made in ensuring fairness.

The School will ensure that the Eligible Whistleblower is kept informed of the outcomes of the investigation of their allegations unless the claim was submitted anonymously. This will be subject to the considerations of privacy of those against whom allegations are made and considerations of confidentiality affecting the School.

If the Eligible Whistleblower is not an employee of the School, the Eligible Whistleblower will be kept informed of the investigative outcomes (subject to other considerations as above), once the Eligible Whistleblower has agreed in writing to maintain confidentiality in relation to any information provided to them regarding a Disclosable Matter made by them.
